SATURDAY, MARCH 31, 1866.

THE Atlanta Intelligencer, after noticing the thrift and wonderful growth of the States and Territories of the "far west," and the prosperity of the enterprising settlers in that region, concludes as follows:

"While we of the South are left to recover from the sad blights of war, and to develop again the resources of the 'sunny South,' the 'far West' is presenting temptations to enterprise and immigration which, owing to the cheapness of lands, will continue to attract both thither when they are so much needed here. We once had in the South a working element. That can no longer be depended upon. From abroad that working element must come, and it will not come in the absence of attractive inducements held out to it, such as Montana and other Western territories now present.

It is well enough to invite and welcome accessions of labor from foreign countries; but it would be far better for the leading classes at the South to set an example of industry and enterprise in their own persons. The old system of labor has departed, never to return; and the sooner the former planters adapt themselves to the change, the larger will be their advantage and contentment.

"OUR READERS have had before them long enough for perusal and thorough consideration, the message of the President vetoing the civil rights bill. The reasoning of the Chief Magistrate, it is fair to infer, is that also of the chief members of his Cabinet.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

This will not do. All accounts concur in stating that only one member of the Cabinet was consulted as to this veto. It is known by everybody that at least three members of the Cabinet do not approve the veto. Why not be honest with your readers? It is of no avail to assign false reasons for a bad position.

REV. H. W. BEECHER says his late Philadelphia lecture has been misrepresented. He did not advocate the admission of all the Southern States. He affirms:

"Nothing could be more untrue, either to my opinions or utterances. I said no such thing; and have by voice and print, said many times over, that I would bring in some, at once; and that I would not bring in all immediately."

CONNECTICUT.—The Hartford Press of Tuesday says:

"It is evident from revelations just made in this city, that a very extensive colonization of copperhead voters is to be made from New York into such cities as Stamford, Bridgeport and New Haven."

Is that a part of the President's Policy?

THE Shoe and Leather Reporter says:—"The boot and shoe trade cannot be said to be in a very satisfactory state. The entire spring business in boots and shoes must result in an average loss, but we all know that lower prices must be reached some time, and perhaps it is as well to start now."

CITY ITEMS.

The Breaking up of Winter.

Under the hard seal of winter the filth of our cities, the pestiferous soil of our marshes and swamps, the mud and slime that form the alluvial of our great rivers, have been for nearly three months comparatively harmless. But now the early spring sun is thawing them, and the elements of disease that were torpid under the frost are fermenting, effervescing, evaporating. The atmosphere is heavy with malaria and miasma. Every cubic foot of air we breathe is tainted more or less with the mephitic vapor which returning warmth exhales from the unwholesome material of every description.

This, then, is the season when the system needs protection, and the experience of fourteen years has proved that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, by invigorating the stomach, toning the liver, regulating the bowels, and bracing the nerves, puts the whole organization in a condition of defense against the subtle poison which generates Agues, Remittent Fevers, Bilious attacks, Indigestion and Nervous diseases.

Now is the time for prevention. The bane is already on the wing; is it not the wildest improvidence to neglect the antidote? A few bottles of Hostetter's Bitters in every house in a new settlement, or a dirty city, or a marshy district, will secure the whole population against all the ordinary spring epidemics, if the preparation is universally and faithfully taken according to the directions. It is from lack of resistant power in their systems that men and women are prostrated by disease. Invigorate, regulate and purify the body and cheer the mind with the great Tonic, Alterative and Detergent, and all will be well.

Hostetter's Bitters

Are sold wholesale and retail at very low rates at Fleming's Drug and Patent Medicine Depot, No. 64 Market street, corner of the Diamond and Fourth street.

Would not "Bite."

A man in Clark Co., having made a preparation for a big dinner selected one of his finest turkeys to boil. Dinner time came and with it the turkey, but to carve it, he could not; the fork refused to enter, and the knife refused to cut. Fearing some fiend, in human shape, had made an attempt to poison the family, the turkey was sent to a chemist to examine for the deadly poison. In the meantime the servants were closely questioned, when the truth came out that a box of "Roback's Blood Pills" were accidently thrown out, and the turkey eating some of them, they had taken all the "bile" out of him.

FROM SOUTH AMERICA.

The War on the River Platte.

GEN. ROBLES AND SIXTY OFFICERS SHOT

Abolishment of Slavery in Brazil.

NEW YORK, March 30.—By the steamship North America, from Rio Janeiro March 5th, the Herald's correspondent sends important news from the seat of war on Parana river. On the 31st of January a Paraguayan force three thousand strong crossed to the southern bank of the Parana, at Passo de la Patria, and attacked the Argentine forces forming the vanguard of the allied army. After a severe fight the Paraguayans recrossed the river in good order, to their headquarters.

The loss of the Argentinos is estimated at two hundred killed. The loss of the Paraguayans is not stated, but large quantity of timber, accumulated by the Argentines for the purpose of making rafts on which to cross troops and material in the long projected grand advance on Paraguay, was captured by the Paraguayans and thrown into the river.

Deserters from the Paraguayan army report that General Roble, together with sixty other officers, had been shot by order of Lopez, director Lopez; in the presence of the entire army drawn up in hollow square.

The Brazilian fleet remained at Corriente awaiting the arrival of the Admiral. Active naval operations were to be commenced by the combined fleets, but from the skilful obstruction of the Paraguayan river below Humaita, it was doubtful whether a successful attack by water could be made.

From all appearances the defensive preparations made by Lopez would effectually prevent any effectual advance of the allies upon Humaita, their only chance of capturing that place lying in a rapid flank movement, either by crossing the Paraiba or by the sacrifice of a portion of men. Porto Alegre was marching with 14,000 men, or by the left bank of the Paraguaya through the Granchaco.

At Rio the carnival season had passed off with great gayety.

The abolishing of slavery in Brazil was to be brought before the adjourned session of the Imperial Legislature.

Rio Janeiro, March 2.—By Mail.—No further news has been received from the river Plate since the defeat of the Argentine vanguard at Passo de La Patria by the Paraguayans, who crossed over the Parana and then retired. Loss on each side about 600. All is quiet in Rio Janeiro and in the Provinces. A modification of the Ministry is rumored.

Unauthorized Statement—Explosion at Washington Arsenal—Proposed Negro Celebration Disapproved.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—On inquiring to-day at the Treasury Department, it was ascertained that there was no authority for a recently published statement that the secretary would pay the interest on the Five Twenty Bonds, early in April. There has been no such determination on the subject.

Yesterday afternoon there was another explosion at the Washington Arsenal. Shell burst, injuring two of the laborers who were engaged in unloading it. One of them may possibly lose several of his fingers by amputation. The only serious damage was the blowing off of the forehead by a fragment of the shell since the explosion at the same place several months ago, by which two persons were killed. This work has been carried on in sheds widely separated, so that in case of an explosion in one, it cannot be communicated to another. Very many of the shells of the material have been recently brought to the Arsenal.

The government has received advices from Richmond, Virginia, that the negroes of that city and the surrounding country are contemplating the project of having some public celebration on the 3d of April next, the anniversary of the fall of Richmond. Boston Journal says:—Major General Terry, commanding the Department has advised and warned the colored people not to attempt so imprudent a demonstration. He is informed that they are in the affair are still engaged in perfecting the arrangements. It is needless to say that any such demonstration by the negroes will not be permitted by the government. Measures have already been taken to prevent any celebration of a public nature.

Loan Bill—The Recent New York Failure.

NEW YORK, March 30.—The Evening Post says the loan bill, it is believed, will be reported by the Finance Committee of the Senate to-day. The measure is attracting little attention, except from the rumor that the publicity clause will be extended so as to require all government transactions in gold and bounds to be published beforehand by due notice.

Culver, Penn & Co.'s failure is attracting less attention, as it is stated that all the debts owing have been secured by collateral, and securities of the National banks which are involved. The notes will, of course, be paid by the treasury at Washington.

The Post's Washington special says several Congressional committees are in session to-day. The Ways and Means Committee will consider the tax bill to-day and to-morrow. The bill will be reported to the Senate early next week, but will not be considered until the civil rights bill is disposed of.

The Navy Department has ordered nine additional vessels to protect our fishermen in their rights.

New Phase of the Fishery Question—Earl Russell on Fenianism.

NEW YORK, March 30.—The London Post declares that England has almost come to the conclusion that there ought to be no restrictions on any sea fishing, and warns the provincials, in case they should persist in claiming too stringently their supposed rights against American fishermen, that the British Government is ready to make great sacrifices to support, three thousand miles away, a right it has virtually abandoned at home.

In the House of Lords, in the course of a debate on the Irish question, Earl Russell said that the Fenian movement arose out of the American war, just as previous risings had been brought about by the French revolution. He added that nothing seemed to be the main object of the Brotherhood.

Mutiny Suppressed—Sentence.

NEW YORK, March 30.—The mutiny aboard the ship Constellation, bound for Liverpool in the harbor, was suppressed by an armed force from the revenue cutter Crawford. The vessel remained under the guns of the cutter all night and sailed this morning, the crew being obedient.

Theodore Yates was sentenced twenty years to the States prison, for the murder of policeman Crean, in Brooklyn.

The fire at Duncan, Sherman & Co.'s originated in the heating apparatus. The building was fire proof and undamaged. No valuable books or papers were burned.

Eastern Coast Squadron Reinforced.

NEW YORK, March 30.—The gunboats DeSoto and Don, which recently left this port for the West Indies, have returned to New York, it is supposed at the request of Admiral Farragut to the eastern coast. The alleged reason for this change is that a flying squadron for the protection of our fishing interests is required to fill immediate service, while we prepare six vessels cruising among the West India Islands already. The reinforcements for that squadron can be delayed for a time.

Rewards for Booth's Capture—A Virginia Protest.

NEW YORK, March 30.—The Tribune's Washington special says: The rewards for the capture of Booth, Harold and Atzerodt, amounting to over one hundred thousand dollars, will be paid to-day.

A delegation is in Washington from Richmond, to induce the President to forbid the negroes celebrating the third of April, the anniversary of the surrender of Lee's army and their deliverance.

Choked to Death.

Stephens Escaped from Ireland.

NEW YORK, March 30.—A morning paper says James Stephens, Head Centre of the Fenian Brotherhood, has certainly escaped from Ireland. It was disputed at first, but is now conceded.

THE GREAT BOND ROBBERY.

THE PRINCIPAL ARRESTED.

ACCOUNT OF HIS CAPTURE.

NEWBURYPORT, MASS., March 30.—J. P. L. Westcott, Marshal of this city, obtained such information that led him to have an interview with Mr. Lord, to whom he communicated his suspicions. On Monday evening, March 19, Westcott saw his man at the New Haven depot in New York, who took the train, followed in due time by Westcott and the deputies. Soon after the train started Westcott went into a baggage car, and seeing baggage with his man's initials on it, he secured his detention. Returning back he found Jones fast asleep, and awakening him up, and calling him by name, Mr. Westcott informed him that he was a prisoner. At first Jones was somewhat surprized, but seeing he was caught he yielded and was ironed. The party kept in the train until reaching West Newbury, when it being desirable to avoid Boston, carriages were taken and they rode around to Chelsea and arrived here safely last week on Tuesday afternoon. Since that time Jones has been kept closely guarded at a hotel. An examination of his baggage disclosed eight bonds of one thousand dollars each, payable to Rufus P. Lord.

This proved that Westcott had secured the right man. Detective Heath, of Boston, came down for consultation, the arrested man being known to him. He went to New York, and in company with Detective Young, of New York, at once commenced following up the trail. Details of the robbery show it to have been one of the boldest thefts ever known. Jones engaged Lord's attention while three accomplices robbed the safe. After the robbery the four proceeded to Central Park and examined the contents of the two tin boxes and the pocket book, at which they were perfectly aghast, so enormous did it seem to them.

Letter from Stevens to Scovil.

NEW YORK, March 30.—The following letter was read from Thaddeus Stevens, by Mr. Scovil, to the New Jersey senate, during his speech

WASHINGTON, March 29, 1866.

Hon James M. Scovil, &c., &c.—DEAR SIR: By all unanimity up your election. Give me no Conservative. A radical man like yourself of nothing. A Conquered is better than a twaddler. (Signed) THADDEUS STEVENS.

The Democratic candidate for the position are John F. Stockton, Democrat; A. G. Cottrell, Republican, and probably scovel himself.

The law it is said will now take its course in the case of all the rebel leaders where a compromise has not been effected. Eight assessments have already been made, five of which the aggregate amount is $57,145. 66.

Trade in New Orleans.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

A Hotel Thief Arrested—Larceny of Clothing.

Chief of Police Hague yesterday arrested Charles Waters, alias Charles Kingsley, upon three charges of larceny, preferred respectively by Wm. Buck, John Ross and Richard Lane; the former for the loss of coat and vest, valued at $25; Ross, for a pair of pants worth $15, and Lane for a pair of pants and coat valued at $31. Waters, or Kingsley, had been boarding at the Red Lion Hotel for a couple of weeks, and has been there at various times leaving, registering his name sometimes as Waters and at other times as Kingsley. A number of articles have been missed from the house, while he was there, he was strongly suspected by the proprietor, and several circumstances connected with the loss fastened guilt upon him.

On Thursday night a drover, who lodged in the same room with him, was minus his pocket book, containing sixteen dollars, and on the same day a fellow boarder, a boatman, who had left Waters in his room, found on returning that his trunk was broken open and the clothes taken out, which after a search he found in the possession of the thief not having had time to convey them off.

These circumstances at once confirmed the suspicions of dishonesty attached to Waters, and the parties robbed obtained who had lost clothing, entered suit. A part of the clothing belonging to Buck was found at the second-hand store of Abraham Opeler, on Hand street, and Buck has instituted suit against Opeler as a receiver of stolen goods, who entered bail for a hearing. Waters has made a partial confession, and he will have a hearing to-day.

Removal.

The office of the Western Union Telegraph Company has been removed to the Dispatch Buildings, and will occupy the basement and third story of the front building, on Fifth street. The partitions for the offices were erected last night, and the office will be set to rights this morning. The business department will occupy the basement and the operatives have ample room in the third story, the necessity for which was the cause of the removal. We are happy to record the fact that this company is in a flourishing condition, as will be readily apparent to anybody who pays a visit to their rooms. They are now communicating with forty-five lines, and employ a force of thirty operators and attaches. System and good management are indicated in all the arrangements for transacting business in their new locality. The company are making no less than two new switch boards, one of which is the largest and withal the neatest that can be found in any telegraph office in the Union.

Death of Wm. T. Lare.

The community, and especially the newspaper fraternity of the city, will be pained to learn of the death of William T. Lare, who has been for many years connected with the press in various capacities. He died on Friday evening, at the age of thirty-nine years.

Mr. Lare was connected with the Dispatch, of this city, for quite a number of years as business manager. Latterly, however, and until a period of about eight months anterior to his death, he was acting in the capacity of City Editor of the Post, during which he filled with credit and ability, and which he resigned to enter a more lucrative employment. Mr. Lare was a man of warm social habits, and his genial disposition won him many friends, who will deplore his removal from their midst. He leaves a wife and family to mourn his loss.

Easter Sunday.—To-day being the close of Lent, next sabbath ushers in Easter. To those religious sects who have been undergoing the strict discipline from spiritual food and a curtailment of the usual number of daily meals which Lent enjoins, Easter Sunday, or the Lenten Feast, comes as a welcome harbinger. The past week has been prolific in the matter of preparation by persons desiring to partake of the Episcopal and Catholic churches, for the purposes of prayer and humiliation, but Easter comes in the guise of a day of Thanksgiving to the whole Christian Church.

Hymn of Praise.—A symphony and cantata by Mendelsohn, with the above title, will be performed by the Oratorio Society, consisting of one hundred vocalists, with thirty instruments, on Tuesday evening next, at City Hall, under the conductorship of Prof. J. J. Wamelink, with Miss Emilie Raige as soprano soloist. This oratorio is one of the sublimest productions of the celebrated composer, and its rendition should secure the patronage of all who can appreciate the grandeur of the subject.

Death of Thomas Bakewell, Esq.

The entire community will learn with regret that Thomas Bakewell, Esq., one of the oldest and most valued of our citizens, expired at his residence yesterday morning, at an early hour. Mr. Bakewell was born in the city of London, in May, 1792, and in 1808 settled in this place, where he has since resided. He was a pioneer in the glass business, which he followed with remarkable success, and for over half a century has been prominently identified with the growth and prosperity of this city. His business foresight, his sterling integrity, his industry and enterprise, rendered him one of the foremost men in the city, and he was called to fill numerous important trusts connected with the management of our monetary institutions, and other incorporated business associations and companies. His great liberality led him to take an active part in furthering every enterprise calculated to benefit his fellow-men, and his influence and his means were freely given in aid of every project of a humane or charitable nature. At the time of his death he was President of the Western Pennsylvania Hospital, and the Pittsburgh Gas Company, a Director of the Bank of Pittsburgh, the Monongahela Bridge Company, and other corporations. Although far advanced in life, and exhibiting the infirmities attendant upon old age, he took a very active part in all measures of a public character calculated to assist the government in the suppression of the late rebellion. The services which he rendered in connection with the Sanitary and Christian Commissions—those noble charities which contributed so largely to the temporal and spiritual welfare of our soldiers—will not soon be forgotten. As we have stated, he was foremost in every good work, and his death will be sincerely regretted by thousands of our citizens, who have long known and esteemed him for his many sterling qualities. His death was sudden, as he was in reasonable good health, for a man of his years, until Sunday last, when he was attacked with erysipelas, which rapidly developed and terminated in death. His remains will be interred on Sabbath afternoon, from his late residence on Grant street.

—Since the above was written we have been handed the following tribute to his memory, which will no doubt be followed by others of a similar tenor:

Proceedings of the Bank of Pittsburgh on the death of Thomas Bakewell, Esq., a Director in the Institution, at a meeting of the Board of Directors, held March 30 1866:

WHEREAS, By the dispensation of the Great Arbiter of Life, another old Director of this Bank has been removed from our Board by death, and we feel in the loss of our late associate and friend, Thomas Bakewell, a void which cannot be filled while memory lasts, and

WHEREAS, For a generation Mr. Bakewell has been recognized and appreciated as one of the safest, most judicious and intelligent advisers of the Bank, and the interests devoting its interests always sustained, with promptitude and decision, such measures as were deemed essential to maintain unimpaired the traditional probity and honor of the institution, regardless of personal advantages, or the popularity of the hour, and

WHEREAS, While we deplore the loss the Bank as well as the whole community, has sustained by the death of this noble-spirited citizen, we feel a conscious pleasure in the fact that the name of Thomas Bakewell will be most honorably connected with the history of Pittsburgh, and will be cherished and perpetuated in connection with institutions of philanthropy and public utility in our midst, which he aided by his wealth, wisdom, maintain by his benefactions, and strengthen by his untiring energy; therefore, be it

Resolved, That while the Board feel deeply the loss of a venerated colleague, they tender to his family their cordial sympathies, and direct that these proceedings be entered on the minutes.

Culver, Penn & Co.

The Titusville Herald says the banks in which this house has been reported to be interested, and which, it such is the fact, are most likely to be injuriously affected by the failure, are the Petroleum bank, Titusville; Venango County Bank, Franklin; First National Bank, Corry; Bank of Lawrence County, Newcastle; Crawford County Bank, Meadville; Oil City Bank, Oil City; First National Bank, Plumer; A. D. Cotton & Co., Petroleum Centre.

Of these the Petroleum Bank, the Venango Bank, and the Oil City Bank, are organized under the Free Banking law of this State. A Harrisburg dispatch says the first two of these banks have every dollar of their circulating notes secured by United states 7.30 bonds deposited in the Treasurer's office. It is probable the last named has likewise.

The Bank of Lawrence County and the Bank of Crawford County are old State institutions.

The National Banks, as a matter of course, have securities deposited at Washington sufficient to redeem their bill holders.

The Petroleum Bank has been to wait developments. As the First National Bank of Titusville, Mr. Culver's interest is represented to be 75 per cent. Culver, Penn & Co., at New York to be overcome on the 28th it was standing a severe run from depositors, and paying promptly, confidence going through.

In the Second National Bank of Titusville, Culver is declared to have no interest.

A Titusville correspondent of the Erie Dispatch says:

"But the Oil City, Crawford County, and Lawrence County bank notes have a peculiar hold on here this morning, and are looked upon as 'as good as gold.' Of the paper in quality, and the circulation of these banks are immense in this section of the State, and if the failure as total the loss will be heavy and wide spread. Time alone will tell the financial rupture to the oil region and surrounding country will be most disastrous, and we look for a crisis in money matters never before experienced in this part of the country. Previous to this crash our finances were in a bad condition, money close, retrenchment the order of the day, but now as business must cease entirely, circulation paralyzed will be sure to bring us direful effects, and ruin to many who might have outrode the storm in comparative safety.

Court of Quarter Sessions.

FRIDAY, March 30.—Before Judges Mellon and Brown.

John Grellin was arraigned on a charge of aiding and abetting Joseph Keaner in a felonious assault upon Kennedy Martin. The jury found him not guilty. Prosecutor, Hay, threw up the case. Defendant to enter into bond in the sum of $200 to keep the peace.

Louis Bell, a colored boy, was arraigned on a charge of burglariously breaking and entering the dwelling house of Henry Vierheller, on Wylie street. The testimony showed that the defendant was found in the jewelry store of Wm. T. Wiley, on the morning of the 19th of January, at about the hour of four o'clock, that he had turned out the gas in the store, etc. The defense contended that inasmuch as the prisoner had entered the shop of Mr. Wiley, while the indictment charged an entrance into the dwelling of Mr. Vierheller, he could not be convicted under the indictment. As the store room was a part of the dwelling, the Court ruled that the indictment was sufficiently accurate. The accused, it appeared, had entered by lifting the grating in the coal vault, and the defendant's counsel held that this was not a "forcible breaking" in law. The Court, in charging the jury, differed from counsel, and charged them that the turning of a bolt in a door which was unlocked, the lifting of a latch, the raising of a window sash, or the unlocking of a door, in the eye of the law. As to this case, it was held that if the grating was lifted up by the defendant, it would be a "breaking" in law. The jury found a verdict of guilty, and the defendant was remanded for sentence.

Peter Keegan was put on trial for the larceny of a pair of shoes, from the store of Joseph H. Boreland. Mr. Redpath, clerk of the store, testified that the defendant came into the store on the 4th of February last, and after examining some shoes, went away, missed one from the counter. When Keegan started to go out, the witness noticed the shoes in his pocket, and took them out. The defendant is a collier and resides at the "Six Mile Ferry." Several witnesses were called and testified to his good character for honesty. This is the second trial for the same offense, the jury on the first trial having failed to agree.

Dishonest Domestic.

On Thursday morning, a girl named Mary Dougherty, employed as a domestic in the family of a gentleman living on Penn street, suddenly disappeared, taking with her a large amount of wearing apparel and provisions. Among the articles stolen were two black merino dresses, one a morning dress, one green silk skirt, one grey poplin dress, one figured delain wrapper, one ladies brown cloth coat, one light cloth coat, one long double Thibet shawl, one worsted one, a black silk and a black silk quilted hood trimmed with fur, one pair kid boots, also a box containing jewelry, a thimble, and a pocket-book containing some greenbacks. In addition to the above, she took an assortment of Balmoral skirts and stockings, and some provisions. As yet no traces of the girl or the missing property have been discovered.

Eight Hour Law.

The following is Mr. Donnelly's eight hour bill as passed the House on the 26th of March:

That hereafter labor performed during a period of eight hours on any secular day, in all cotton, woollen, silk, paper, bagging, flax and other factories or in any mine in this Commonwealth, shall be considered a legal day's labor, and hereafter contracts made for the employment of mechanics and laborers in all the various branches of trade for daily labor, shall be construed to be for eight working hours to the day in any employment, Provided that this act shall take effect from and after the first day of July next, Provided this does not apply to farmers or teamsters.

City Mortality.

Dr. Geo. L. McCook, Physician to the Board of Health, makes the following report of the interments in the City of Pittsburgh, from March 18th to March 25th, 1866:

DISEASES.—Nervous exhaustion, 1; bronchitis, 2; typhoid fever, 3; pyemia, 1; consumption, 4; still born, 4; meningitis, 1; small pox, 1; hooping cough, 1; disease of heart, 1; inflammation of brain, 2; abscess, 1; spina bifida, 1.

Of the above there were, under 1 year, 5; from 1 to 2, 1; from 2 to 5, 1; from 5 to 10, 1; from 15 to 20, 1; from 20 to 30, 3; from 30 to 40, 2; from 40 to 50, 1; from 60 to 70, 1; from 70 to 80, 1. Males 9; females, 8; white 15; colored 2. Total, 17.

Correction.—We gave on Wednesday an account of a collision between the tow boat Hercules and a monitor lying in the river opposite Cairo, wherein the towboat and its fleet evidently had the worst of it. Later advices are that the account contained a little fact and much exaggeration. It was not the Hercules but the Panther that had the coal boats in tow, and only two barges were lost instead of eight, as at first reported.

Held for a Hearing.—W. S. Roberts, charged on oath of Kate Bunn, with the larceny of two trunks and some pictures, the whole valued at fifty dollars, left with the defendant for safe keeping, but the proceeds of which he appropriated to his own use, had a hearing yesterday before Alderman Strain and was required to enter bail to answer.

Feast of the Passover.—The Jewish Passover, commemorative of the departure of the Children of Israel from Egypt and their passage over the Red Sea, commenced last evening, and services were held in the Synagogue, and will continue for eight days, during which no leaven of any kind is allowed to be eaten or used for any purpose.

Drowned Herself.—A Mrs. George Ash creek, who resides at Curtis & Dyer's coal bank, near Sharon, Lawrence county, on last Monday, tied her feet together and jumped into the cistern and drowned herself. No reason is assigned for this rash act.

Messenger of Councils.—We would recommend S. B. Cooper as a suitable person to fill the office of Messenger, left vacant by the death of Colonel Pratt. Mr. Cooper was a soldier of 1812, and a son of a soldier of the Revolutionary War.

FORFEITURE OF RIGHTS BY STATES.

It is now claimed by the supporters of what is known as the President's Policy that States did not forfeit any of their rights by arming their citizens against the general government, and that, having disarmed they are entitled to resume their old relations to the Union whenever they think proper. The President holds this opinion now; but he did not a few months ago. Look at the proof:

His Excellency James Johnson, Provisional Governor of Georgia, Milledgeville:

Your several telegrams have been received. The President of the United States cannot recognize the people of any State as having resumed the relations of loyalty to the Union that admits as legal, obligations contracted, or debts created in their name, to promote the war of the rebellion. WILLIAM H. SEWARD.

WASHINGTON, October 28, 1865.

The President considers the acceptance of the amendment by South Carolina as indispensable to a restoration of her relations with the other States of the Union.

WILLIAM H. SEWARD,
Executive Office,
Washington, D. C., Nov. 27, 1865.

W. W. Holden, Provisional Governor, Raleigh, North Carolina:

Accept my thanks for the noble and efficient manner in which you have discharged your duty as Provisional Governor. You will be sustained by the government.

The results of the recent elections in North Carolina have greatly damaged the prospects of the State in the restoration of its governmental relations. Should the action and the spirit of the Legislature be the same three, it will greatly increase the mischief already done and might be fatal.

It is hoped the action and spirit manifested by the Legislature will be so directed as rather to repair than to increase the difficulties under which the State has already placed itself in the form of government.

President of the United States.

Executive Office,
Washington, D. C. August 15, 1865.

Governor W. L. Sharkey, Jackson, Mississippi:

I am gratified to see that you have organized your convention without difficulty. I hope that without delay your convention will amend your State Constitution, abolishing slavery and denying to all future legislatures the power to legislate that there is property in man; also that they will adopt the amendment to the Constitution of the United States abolishing slavery. If you could extend the elective franchise to such persons of color who can read the Constitution of the United States in English and write their names, and to all persons of color who own real estate valued at not less than two hundred and fifty dollars, and pay taxes thereon, you would completely disarm the adversary and set an example the other States will follow. This you can do with perfect safety, and you thus place the Southern States in reference to free persons of color, upon the same basis with the free States. Hope and trust you will cordially co-operate with me; and, as a consequence, the radicals, who are wild upon negro franchise, will be completely foiled in their attempt to keep the Southern States out of their relations to the Union by not accepting their Senators and Representatives. ANDREW JOHNSON,
President of the United States.

I trust in God the Legislature will adopt the amendment, and thereby make the way clear for the admission of Senators and Representatives to their seats in the present Congress.

I congratulate you and your colleague on your election to the Senate.

ANDREW JOHNSON.

In all these dispatches, and many more of kindred import which we have not space to quote, four points are brought to view. 1. That the revolted States had not "resumed their loyalty to the Union." 2. That those States were under obligations to comply with certain conditions before resuming those "relations." 3. That the government of the United States had authority to determine those conditions and enforce compliance. 4. That the President is the government. On the first three of these points we fully coincide with the President. On the last, we totally dissent.

There is an important sense in which the revolted States are out of the Union. They have, by their own acts, fallen under disabilities. It is the province of the government to prescribe the terms of reinstatement. In an especial manner does this duty devolve on Congress, as the law-making power, subject, as a matter of course, to the veto prerogative of the Executive.

When the war ended Congress should have been convened in special session, and the President, according to his constitutional obligations, should have submitted to the Houses his views of the state of the country. There never was an emergency so imperatively demanding a special convocation of the representatives of the States and the people, as this; and there never will be, to the end of time, a more pressing necessity. It suited the President not to summon Congress, but to arrogate to himself all the powers of government.

We are not disposed to quarrel with the conditions exacted by the President. We should be glad to see all those conditions enforced, and others in addition. And here we cannot help remarking that the most significant suggestion by the President is this, that the results of the election in North Carolina had damaged the prospects of restoration for that State. What is this, but an assertion of the doctrine that North Carolina may be held in subordination until such time as the temper manifested by the people shall demonstrate a return to genuine loyalty?

Note what changes have passed over the President's ideas of reconstruction. In July, as will be seen in referring to the dispatches of Secretary SEWARD to Governor SHARKEY, to which we recently called attention, the President asserted the authority of Congress over the whole subject as broadly as the "wildest of radicals." In October and November, as will be seen by the dispatches given above, he claims exclusive authority for himself. His language is not the language of a republican President, with limited and co-ordinate powers, but that of an absolute Dictator, with nothing to consult but his own will. Now, the President virtually confesses his usurpation, by declaring there is no authority in the nation competent to impose conditions on the eleven revolted States; that all they have to do is to elect Senators and Representatives, send them on to Washington, and have them demand, of right, admission to seats. He holds that the right of each of these eleven States to representation is as ample and perfect as the right of the loyal States. What will be the next in this series of changes of position it is in vain to conjecture. Some of the most intelligent and influential western journals have gone so far as to implicate the President in a conspiracy for a coup d'etat, through which the loyal Senators are to be ejected by military force, and the rebel, copperhead and conservative Senators put in, and receive executive recognition as the legitimate body. It is even asserted that Secretary SEWARD's recent voyage, ostensibly undertaken with a view to Mexican negotiations, had no other real object than to consummate a bargain to this end with the expatriated rebel leaders domiciled in Cuba. However this may be, it is not for us to decide. In revolutionary epochs like that through which our government and people are passing, apprehensions are naturally alert. Suspicions do not require verities to build upon. But, while this much is admitted in the way of caution, it cannot be denied in times of revolutionary effervescence, schemes are hatched and seriously entertained, plots engendered and launched upon experiment, that in periods of quiet inde and order would not have been conceived, or, if conceived, would have been summarily consigned to the limbo of rejected and infernal expedients.

MR. JAMES M. COOPER, of this city recently addressed a very able and cogent letter to the New York evening Post, on "Foreign and Domestic Duties on Steel." One paragraph has special significance:

"The official returns of steel of all kinds imported into New York, Philadelphia, and Baltimore in the year 1864, under the several classifications for duty, amounted to 31,296,043 pounds, which, computed at the present rate of duty, produced $870,032 38 or 2 78-100c. per pound, being about one-fourth of a cent per pound more duty than the American manufacturer pays his Government in the shape of excise on his production."

The American manufacturer pays a tax of two and a half cents a pound on production; thus demonstrating that so far as relates to this branch of industry the existing tariff is less protective than any previous one enacted by Congress. Nor does Steel stand a solitary exception in this particular:

"OUR SENATORS."—The Copperheads of Greene county, at a meeting recently held, passed a resolution "that the Hon. CHAS. R. BUCKALEW, and EDGAR COWEN our Senators in Congress, are entitled to thanks of every true hearted white man in the State, for their able and manly support of President JOHNSON." COWAN is thus distinctly recognized by the Copperheads as one of their Senators.

THE New York Commercial Advertiser, commenting on the Connecticut election, says:

"It is not 'disloyal' to differ with Mr. Johnson, though it used to be so held to differ with Mr. Lincoln."

Do you refer to the WADE-DAVIS manifesto as proof of this assertion? Whether you do or not, that manifesto is as near being proof, as anything you can produce.

THE Democratic gain in New Hampshire, since last fall, is THREE THOUSAND VOTES! Last fall the Republican majority was 7,500. This spring it is only 4,700. This is glorious enough for that benighted region.—Johnstown Democrat.

This is the stuff with which democrats are deluded. There was no election in New Hampshire, last fall; and the Republican majority last spring was the same as this year—5,000.

OHIO REPOSITORY.—The Repository, published in Canton, Ohio, has entered upon its fifty-second year. It was started in 1815 by its present editor, honest JOHN SAXTON, who has been its editor ever since, and who is probably the only editor living who has remained with the same paper in the same place for fifty-one consecutive years.

LAST week nearly every one of the few "conservative" organs of the President, pronounced the Civil Rights bill a most excellent measure. The only exception that we know of is the New York Times. Now they are all hunting excuses to justify or excuse the veto.

THE Detroit Post, a new daily just started in Detroit by Gen. CARL SCHURZ, has been received. It is a neat quarto, very ably edited, and takes its stand firmly upon the side of Congress in the issue between it and the President.

For the Pittsburgh Gazette.

"Extremists are Useless."

Is it so? Society is advancing from one degree of civilization to another. Reforms are taking place. Intellect is assuming the sway over appetite and passion. The gross darkness that covers the earth is disappearing. Who are the men who are accomplishing this work? Are they the medium, conservative, timid, selfish men ever regarding their own safety, ease, or interests the men who are ever ready to hold back those in the advance, and in holy dread predict the direst calamities from their rashness? Do the bold self-sacrificing soldiers who go forth in the front ranks, encounter the weapons of the enemy, and suffer death for their cause achieve the victory, or those who tread the path made safe by the scars and blood of others. Was Paul useless? Was the Saviour of men, who suffered death for his extreme views, useless? Were Joseph Second of Austria, Peter the Great, of Russia, or William Tell, useless? Were Luther, Calvin, Howard, Wilberforce and Whitefield useless?

Lord Melbourne declared the late Richard Cobden mad; and yet Sir Robert Peel acknowledged that the repeal of the Corn laws, to which Mr. Cobden devoted five years of labor was due to him more than any other man. So it is with the extremists in inventions, who are denounced and derided by their fellows. For their race Fulton and Whitney lived.

There are men in our own land who have been mobbed, and suffered every indignity, for their efforts in behalf of those enslaved by appetite or by wicked men. Already they have their reward. Give me a courageous, unselfish man, who unflinchingly will pursue the right whatever may oppose, rather than the so called cautious, safe, but cowardly and selfish man, to whom the world will never be indebted for any forward step.

SENTIMENT IN NEW ORLEANS.—A gentleman well known in the west, and whose opinions have been formed from long observation, writes as follows from New Orleans, to a friend in this city:

"I think the prevailing feeling is that the South has been overpowered; that as against the government they are powerless. Both in private conversation and in public lectures, within a month past, I have been pained to hear that in the event of a foreign war they would be found on the side of the enemy; in lectures, a little circumlocution is needed, but not the less distinctly understood, and with approval. A marked instance of this was in the lecture of Dr. Hunter from Vicksburg, soliciting funds to send to their homes destitute rebel soldiers in Virginia, and other States. The Times, the next morning, lauded the speaker."

AUSTIN, March 12, 1866.—In the Constitutional Convention, on the 8th inst., the debate on the repeal of the ordinance of secession brought forward Messrs. Waul, Ireland and Runnells, three unpardoned rebel generals, each of whom maintained that the State had a right to secede in 1861. In a speech made by Waul, he declared that the people of Texas had been marching to such other music of late that they would not submit to everything that was asked of them. Mr. Ireland also remarked that they (the rebels) would have to girt on their swords and go to the assistance of President Johnson. Many of the Union delegates are getting sick and tired of the proceedings, and are leaving in disgust. There are prospects of a general smash-up in the Convention before long.

ABOUT ten o'clock yesterday morning, W. B. Oddie, an artist, and John La Dew, his friend, were in the Carlton House, on the southwest corner of Fourteenth street and Fourth avenue, and Mr. La Dew was near the door having his boots cleaned. He drew a pistol, and in a playful manner pointed it at Mr. Oddie, saying something about putting a ball through his friend's hat. The pistol exploded, and the ball took effect in the forehead of Mr. Oddie, entering the head just above the hat-band. Death ensued almost instantly. It is said that La Dew had been indulging in frequent libations during the morning. Immediately after the catastrophe, he surrendered himself to the police, to await the result of the Coroner's inquest which will be held afternoon.—N. Y. Times, 29th.

MONETARY CRISIS AT RICHMOND.—A correspondent of the Petersburg (Va.) Express says that "whisperings of a financial crash in Richmond greet the ear. These hard times have been foretold. High rents, extraordinary living, big shows, etc., have done it all. Richmond is full of goods of all kinds. Something must be done, or a crash is inevitable."

GENERAL NEWS.

THE New York Daily News is of the opinion that in the murder of Mr. Lincoln by J. Wilkes Booth "a just and wise Providence interfered to save us, and to-day, through Andrew Johnson, God is tumbling down and trampling under foot what He has not planted, the Radical power."

It is clear that the News is now a member of the Union party according to the Presidential definition: "When I said the Union party, I did not mean the men who are endeavoring to break up the Union, but the men who stand by me." In that party J. Wilkes Booth ought to be regarded as a sort of Saint.—Chicago Rep.

THE Chincha Islands do not exceed in extent two and a half square miles, yet for years past they have supplied guano to an average of four hundred ships per annum, with a freightage of not less than $9,000,000, the value of such cargoes in Europe being upwards of $30,000 in gold. They are moreover, more densely populated than any others of like extent, having upwards of 2,000 residents, about 600 of whom are Chinese laborers in the employ of the Government contractor for the loading of the shipping.

AN URGENT ARTICLE in a Southern religious paper advises and insists on more strenuous exertions in promoting the education of the white youth in order to maintain the "just supremacy" of the master race. The recognized necessity of such advice by a Southerner, and for such a reason, is the strongest proof that could be adduced that the enfranchised negro is exhibiting sufficient mental ability to awaken the fears of the now dominant race as to the longer retention of their supremacy.

NEW SECTIONALISM.—So far as Mr. Johnson's official action has any effect, it is organizing the South into a distinct and antagonistic power in the Union. The old practice of the pro-slavery Democracy, was to keep the Southern States united, and by dividing Northern sentiment, seek to control national politics. Whatever his purpose, the effect of the President's speeches and policy tends in the same direction.—Utica Herald.

FREEDMEN SEEKING BETTER WAGES.—Milledgeville papers say that more than one thousand negroes have within two weeks passed over the Georgia railroads, from Putnam and adjacent counties, for the West. They have been induced to leave their employers on the promise of higher wages. The most able-bodied and likely fellows are taken with only a change of clothing. Their particular destination is unknown.

LAND CHANGING HANDS IN THE SOUTH.—The North Carolina papers are full of statements going to show that plantations in that section are being rapidly bought up by Northerners. A Jerseyman recently purchased twelve hundred acres in Wadesboro', N. C., at eleven dollars per acre. A New York company are on the point of taking ten thousand acres in the same State, on which they will settle English emigrants.

TO JUDGE BLACK, of Pennsylvania, Judge Hughes, of Indiana, and Montgomery Blair, the authorship of the veto message is variously assigned. The style differs so much from that of the speeches which the President makes as to have excited considerable comment. One gentleman, speaking of it remarked: "The President writes well, but he keeps some low fellow about him to make his speeches."

THE CIVIL RIGHTS BILL.—A careful canvass of the Senate has been made, and it is found that the Copperheads cannot muster over 14 votes against the passage of the Civil Rights Bill over the veto. This assures its passage by the majority whenever it is pressed to a vote. The fact is admitted by the opposition, and they already betray their want of amiability at the prospect.

ABOUT sixteen hundred divorces have been decreed in Massachusetts in six years, of which 584 were for desertion, 535 were for criminality, 132 for cruelty, and 42 from other causes. It is known that 1,316 were decreed in the five years that ended May 1, 1865—and at the same rate during the last eleven months it may be assumed that the grand total is not far from 1,600.

THE Cincinnati Gazette says that pure "Essence of Coffee" is now made in that city out of the "cheapest, dirtiest and nastiest molasses," which is boiled until it ropes, cooled in pans, and when hard broken up and pulverized. Ground rye is then mixed with it, after which it is boxed up, each box being sold at eighty cents, and labelled "Pure Essence of Coffee."

THE new house of A. T. Stewart, at the corner of Fifth avenue and Thirty-fourth street, N. Y., is nearly completed. It is built of marble and in the Corinthian order of architecture. The height of its walls is 80 feet; of the roof 19 feet; width of front on the avenue 62 feet; depth on Thirty-fourth street 120 feet. It will cost, when completed, $1,500,000.

THE increase of receipts by the American Missionary Association has of late been very marked. For the week ending March 17th, the total receipts in money, in addition to clothing, were $11,104 80. Of this sum $6,754 87 came from England. This society is doing noble work among the freedmen, and all will rejoice in its enlarged means of usefulness.

THE New York Daily News has an article headed "The South Must Not Despond," closing as follows: "The battle is not ended, though the arena be changed. There is as much need now of courage, firmness and devotion, as there was on the fields of armed conflict. Let the South be vigilant, active and aspiring, and, for the sake of its future, let it not despond."

THE Richmond Examiner calls upon General Terry to prevent the proposed demonstration in that city on the 3d of April, in commemoration of their restoration to freedom by the downfall of rebel power. The Examiner says the 3d of April will ever be to their people an anniversary of blighted hopes, of ruined fortunes, of anguish and desolation.

IT IS NOT TRUE that the Supreme Court of the United States has recognized the rebel States as members of the Union. All that the Court has done has been to hear an appeal which was taken from one of those States previous to the rebellion. The question of their present status has not been considered by the Court.

AN enthusiastic supporter of the President's "policy" was arrested lately at Independence, Mo., while engaged in a meeting to sustain the veto and great speech of the 22d. The charge against the man was that he was one of the wretches who aided the notorious Quantrell in the massacre of Lawrence.

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

The Nashville correspondent of the United Presbyterian, Rev. J. G. M'Kee, gives some interesting items in regard to the mission work of the United Presbyterian Church among the freedmen, established in that city in the autumn of 1863. Speaking of the freedmen from Alabama, Georgia, and all parts of Tennessee, who had come to Nashville, says since the return of peace thousands have returned to their old homes, among them pupils of the mission school, carrying with them a literary epidemic. In regions never blessed with a school, and where not one-fourth the whites can write their names, some of these graduates may be seen proudly teaching Aunt Cloe and Uncle Cudjo to read the Bible. It is amusing to witness the disdain for "de poor wite trash dat can't read." An instance is given of meeting with a large family, of which almost every member, old and young, could read. He enquired, "where did you learn?" "Dat boy went to your school de fust winter you teached, an' he teach we'ens all." He answers the question, "can the niggers learn anything?" thus: Though comparatively few can afford to stay with us longer than to learn to read and write a little, yet the last month's report shows: Pupils enrolled, 587; reading, 459; writing, 225; arithmetic, 198; geography, 38; English Grammar, 52. Time was required to organize and systematize the pupils so as to produce such results. For a while it was a difficult matter to secure punctuality, but by the use of simple incentives, the difficulty was finally overcome.

—The spirit of revival seems to prevail in all parts of the country in most of the Evangelical Churches. In some places the work is of a most extraordinary character in which the signal display of God is manifested in a powerful manner. It seemed to be generally felt by ministers that at the close of the war, God would display his saving power in the awakening and conversion of a vast number of souls. Reference was made to the wonderful work of grace at Rev. Theodore L. Cuyler's (New School Presbyterian) church in Brooklyn, N. Y., not long since. Sabbath before last one hundred and twenty-eight were received into the church, twenty-seven by letter from sister churches, and one hundred and one on profession of faith. The entire number of the members of this young church, about four years established, is nine hundred and eight. On the first Sunday of March one hundred and twenty-nine were received into the Second Presbyterian church (N. S.,) at Williamsport, Pa. Thus the work goes on in the churches.

—It is gratifying to note the spirit of some men, who have been favored by God in the accumulation of wealth, by using their means for noble purposes. Mr. Baldwin, the merchant prince and church-builder, as he is now known, has, erected four or five beautiful temples of worship within the limits of the city of Philadelphia, where he resides. It is said of him, that a donation of $35,000 is getting to be a common thing with him to assist a new Presbyterian church in the erection of a sanctuary. It is well that all rich men are not miserly in their feelings, but give of what really belongs to the Lord by right.

—Lord Russell in communicating the decision of Her Majesty's Government not to issue orders for a Commission for the Revision of the Liturgy, gives as a reason that as her Majesty's Government is anxious to promote peace and good will, such a Commission would in all probability lead to heated discussions, and its reports, if it framed any, would be sure to offend and irritate a large party in the Church.

—The Rev. Dr. Durbin, who stands at the head of the Missionary interests of the Methodist Episcopal Church, has written an able paper on lay delegation, which has appeared in the leading papers of that denomination, in which he alleges, the question of lay delegation in the General Conference is advancing in all parts of the Church; especially among the intelligent and prominent ministers and laymen. He thinks the Church cannot disregard their judgment and feelings in this matter while the principle is conceded. The common judgment that it is only a matter of time; that it will come.

—The appeal in favor of the erection of a free Episcopal Church in Boston, expresses a sentiment in regard to the multitudes who neglect the Sabbath services, which should be well considered by those who occupy pews with closed doors, "that the Church does not go out after them, as the Savior commanded her, nor even "set open doors for them to come in."

—The Catholics are discarding their old notions of educating the masses, it would seem from the fact that they are about to establish a Roman Catholic Tract Society in New York city. The society is to be under the auspices of the Paulist Fathers and the supervision of Archbishop McClosky and the Bishops of the Diocese. Branches are to be established in all the large cities of the Union.

—The Commercial Advertiser says the fourteen Congregational Churches of Boston last Sunday week made a solemn renewal of the Covenant, each in their own edifice. The exact form of words used by the Mathers, two hundred years ago, was used. In the evening all the churches united in a communion service.

—From a circular just published by the agent of the Philadelphia Tract and Mission Society, an auxiliary to the Church, we learn the Society was organized in 1827. It has now 1 General Agent, 6 Missionaries, 30 Assistant Superintendents, and 580 Tract Distributers connected with the Evangelical churches of that city. It distributes monthly 50,000 English, German and French Tracts, besides other missionary work.

—Rev. Dr. Spring, of New York, is not the sole surviving member of the original Bible Society. Rev. Gilbert H. Sayers, of Jamaica, L. I., is yet living, though infirm and aged.

—The annual missionary collection of St. Paul's M. E. church, Fourth Avenue, New York, has just been taken, amounting to ten thousand dollars.

—The American Board of Foreign Missions has received to March 1, $171,537.40.

—A new Congregational Church in New York city was organized March 10th, with the name, "The New England Church."

SPECIAL NOTICES.

☞ AYER'S PILLS—Are you sick, feeble and complaining: Are you out of order with your system deranged and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the precursors of serious illness. Some fit of sickness is creeping upon you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Ayer's Pills, and cleanse out the disordered humors—purify the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed to health again. They stimulate the functions of the body into healthy activity, purify the system from the obstructions which make disease. A cold settles somewhere in the body, and deranges its natural actions. These we fit not relieved, react upon themselves and the surrounding organs, producing general aggravation, suffering and derangement. While in this condition, take Ayer's Pills, and see how directly they restore the natural action of the system, and with it the buoyant feeling of health again. What is true and so apparent in this trivial and common complaint is also true in many of the deep seated and dangerous distempers. The same purgative effect expels them. Caused by similar obstructions and derangement of the natural functions of the body, they are rapidly and many of them surely cured by the same means. None who know the virtue of these Pills will neglect to employ them when suffering from the disorders they cure, such as Headache, Foul Stomach, Dysentery, Bilious Complaints, Indigestion, Derangement of the Liver, Constipation, Costiveness, Dyspepsia, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Worms and Suppression, when taken in large doses.

They are Sugar Coated, so that the most sensitive can take them easily, and they are surely the best purgative medicine yet discovered.

AYER'S AGUE CURE.

For the speedy cure of Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Ague Remittent Fever Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers, indeed for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement, caused by the Malaria of miasmatic countries.

This remedy has rarely failed to cure the severest cases of Chills and Fever, and it has this great advantage over other Ague medicines, that it subdues the complaint without injury to the patient. It contains no quinine or other deleterious substance nor does it produce quinism or any injurious effect whatever. Shaking fevers of the most inveterate type, and the west, try it and you will endorse these assertions. Prepared by J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass., and sold by R. A. FARNESTOCK & CO., Pittsburgh, and by all Druggists. mh18.2mM&W&F

FINANCE AND TRADE.

FRIDAY, March 30, 1866.

We have the following quotations from New York by telegraph: Gold, 128; U. S. 1881 Bonds 104½; Five Twenty Bonds, 104; Ten Forties, 91½; Seven Thirties, 100¾; Cleveland & Pittsburgh Railroad, 79½; Fort Wayne & Chicago, 92¾. The quotations vary but slightly from those of yesterday. Gold shows no change. The general stock and bond market exhibits a firmer tone, with increased business, especially in Governments. Pittsburgh quotations are about as follows: Gold, 126; Silver, 118; U. S. 81's, 101½; 5-20s, 102½; 10-40s, 91; 7-30s, 99¾c par.

The amount of business done throughout the day, has, we judge, been light. Money has ruled close for borrowers, and the week closes with little, if any tendency towards greater ease. We gather the following quotations from the sales and bids which have fallen under our notice. Daily sessions of the Bankers Board having ceased, we find it somewhat difficult to present every day a perfectly reliable list of rates:

Governments quoted above. Allegheny County Fives, 71@72; Pittsburgh City Fives, 68@69; Allegheny Valley Railroad, Mortgage 7 per cent, 93@95; Pittsburgh & Connellsville 6's, 78@80; Penna. Railroad shares, 55 bid, 56 asked; Allegheny Valley Railroad shares held at 9½; Connellsville shares, 9¼@10—sales (interest bearing) at the latter figure.

BANK STOCKS—Bank of Pittsburgh, 67@68, sales at 68; Merchants & Manufacturers, 61@62, no sales during the week; Mechanics, 70 bid, 72 asked; Iron City, 79@80; Citizens, 60@61; Exchange, 66@67, sales at 66@66½; Allegheny, 58@59; People's National, 108½ bid; Tradesmen's, 112@113, sales at the first figure; National Bank of Commerce, 110@111, sales at both figures; Third National, 124@125, no sales reported; German National, 163@164, small lots reported at 165, bid to-day, 163; Fourth National, 110@111, a forced auction sale reported at lower figures, but the test was hardly a fair one.

BRIDGE STOCKS—St. Clair street, 43@44; no sales; Hand street stands at about 52; Monongahela, 29@30, sales at the latter rate; Birmingham, 33@34, with sales at 33, and larger lots at 33½, stock held at 35.

GAS—Pittsburgh Gas Company, sales at 74 per share; Allegheny Gas, no late sales; stock held at about 36; Birmingham Gas, sales at 29½ an l at 30, in considerable lots.

OILS—Almost ruled out of market. Columbia about the only stock mentioned, and that is exceedingly heavy at 18@19 per share. We have 1¼ bid for Dalzell. Glasgow, a new favorite from Smith's Ferry, stands at 9½@10.

—Of the three hundred billions of dollars of the currency of the national banks, authorized by Congress, all but seven millions has already been issued, and some of the advocates of paper expansion are, with some show of reason, urging the expediency of having the limit increased to four hundred millions, for the accommodation of distant parts of the country—the Southern States, more particularly, if the proposed contraction of the legal tenders should take place—but it is difficult to see how an early return to specie payments can be secured if the authorities should permit expansion to keep pace with contraction; it is to be hoped, therefore, that they will not authorize any more currency to be issued.

—The New York Commercial List comments as follows on the Loan Bill:

The Loan Bill, as passed in the House, appears to be a sort of compromise measure between the Secretary of the Treasury and those in Congress who oppose his general policy. The foreign clause is retained, the Secretary being authorized to dispose of any description of bonds authorized by said act, either in the United States or elsewhere, for such an amount, in such manner, and at such rate as he may think advisable." Not having been able to appreciate the necessity, nor to see the advantage to be derived from withdrawing the Secretary with power to negotiate a foreign loan and removing the national exchequer to the money centres of Europe, we have left constrained to oppose it from its very inception, hence we now trust that the foreign clause will be stricken out in the Senate, although the telegraph reports assert that the Senate Finance Committee are favorable to the bill as it passed the House, and that no important amendments will be proposed. The efforts of Secretary McCulloch to obtain power from Congress to contract the currency, with a view to bringing about specie payments, we do appreciate, and trust that he will receive it. Not that we deem any material contraction strictly necessary, but because we know that the knowledge that the power to contract was vested in the Secretary would go a great way toward obviating the necessity of a reduction of the currency. The Secretary himself has declared as much in a letter to the Chairman of the Committee of Ways and Means. As we remarked in our last, the tendencies are all in the right direction, and point directly to a resumption at no very remote period, which will probably be hastened by the clause of the Loan Bill authorizing the Secretary to fund $10,000,000 within six months, and $4,000,000 per month thereafter; but the granting of the power to fund the legal tenders, without any limit, would have proved much more effectual in our judgment, even though not used at all. This power once vested in the Secretary, the country would at once perceive that the policy of resumption was fully determined upon, and the business of the country would soon become adjusted on that basis. But the limited power to contract the currency, conferred by the bill as it passed the House, will not be attended with beneficial results. The alarm was sounded at the Gold Board almost at the same instant that the bill passed the House, and it marked a decline in the premium on gold was among the very first results. The Secretary holds that "it is not desirable that specie payment should be restored until that restoration can be made permanent by increased industry and a proper adjustment of the trade with Europe;" and he declares that the battle will be more or less fought when the Government shall adopt a healthy financial policy." As this is the ground we have all along maintained, we have no need to remark that our opinion has not been changed, hence we do not believe in the expediency of declaring to the Secretary of the Treasury, so far shall those go on the road to resumption but no further.

—There is still dispute as to the precise shape in which the Loan Bill passed the House. The correction that followed the first report of the bill passed, to the effect that the foreign loan clause was stricken out, the Journal of Commerce believes is not true. That paper "understands the bill, as it passed the House, to authorize the Secretary to dispose of any description of bonds authorized by said act, either in the United States or elsewhere, to such an amount, in such manner, and at such rate as he may think advisable. The clause stricken out, as stated in the papers, was the one limiting the interest on the bonds to five per cent if sold abroad, and in that case authorizing the use of foreign currency. The amendment, therefore, removes a restriction, and gives the Secretary almost unlimited discretion as to the sales of bonds."

—The New York Tribune says:

The provisional contract for the consolidation of various great express companies was accepted yesterday by the National Banking Express Company. It is understood that the arrangement is to increase the capital stock of the old companies to the extent of $5,000,000, which stock is to be taken by the National Bankers. The latter will no longer exist as a separate company.

—In the unsettled condition of the gold markets, the merchandise markets are very dull, and consumers are still buying very sparingly and only for the supply of immediate wants, the considerable concessions which have already been made by holders of some descriptions of merchandise only encouraging them to await further reduction in prices, instead of stimulating them to more active purchases on larged operations. The present unsettled condition of the financial policy of the Government has also a great effect in retarding business transactions of every character.

New York Iron Market.

NEW YORK, March 28.—Buyers of scotch pig are holding off for lower rates, and though several cargoes have gone in store, prices rather tend downward. There is no speculative inquiry, and not much for consumption at present. 400 tons Glengarnock sold in lots, at 145@46, ex ship. Makers of American are eager sellers, and are under-bidding each other to such an extent that it is difficult to define any particular rate. Forge is quoted at $38@40, and No. 1 for forge purposes, on terms not made public; 600 do, $44; and 100 do No. 2, $43, all at Elizabethport. Since the large sales of steel and iron rails noticed in our last, we have heard of no transactions—100 tons English refined bar, ex ship, sold at $74@75 gold. From store, the demand is only moderate, and prices of refined bar are shaded, about 2,50 per ton—there is no change in any other description. The sale of American refined bar, reported in our last, was 1000 tons, not 10,000 as mis-printed.—Com. List.

Albany Cattle Market.

ALBANY, March 30.—The Cattle market at the opening is unusually active, and owing to the rise in New York the price raised 1@2c per pound, but the supply was greater than was looked for, and to-day prices receded. The decline is almost equal to the advance, so the rates are about the same as last week, being from 6 to 9½c, the outside price, for prime; Extra is heavy. Total receipts, 5,000. Railroad freights have been reduced to 90 cents per 100 lbs from Buffalo Suspension Bridge to New York. Sheep are plenty, and prices somewhat lower, but the demand is fair; sales 3,300 at 6¼@6c according to quality and weight. Receipts, 7,000.

Chicago Market.

CHICAGO, March 30.—Flour steady. Wheat quiet, at 1,24@1,25½ for No. 1, and 8c for No. 2. Corn active, at 46@42c for No. 1, and 37@38c for No. 2. Oats quiet, at 25@28c for No. 1. Highwines nominal, at $2,20@2,22. Provisions dull; Mess Pork $25,58. Lard steady, at 18c. Hogs $9,25@9,60. Dressed Hogs, $10,75.

CENTRAL LIVE-STOCK MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, March 29, 1866.

The transactions in Cattle were again light this week, owing mainly to the fact that the arrivals were meagre, but under the influence of the advices from the East the market ruled firmer and prices a shade higher. There was also a fair business done in Hogs and Sheep, but there is no decided change to note in prices. The following are the reported sales for the week:

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, March 30, 1866.

CRUDE—The Oil market presents the anomaly of being dull and firm, the arrivals being quite limited and the stock for sale on the wharf very small. Holders are quite firm, and hold what they have at extreme rates. Low gravities in barrels cannot be had, except in very small lots, but with larger receipts of barrel oil, which are confidently expected in a short time, the chances to secure prime qualities will be greatly increased. The sales were as follows: Sales 300 bbls., 14 cents; 250 ditto, 14 cents; 1,000 ditto, 14 cents; 1,000 ditto, in bulk, at 14 cents, to arrive.

REFINED—Sales of Refined in bond, for August delivery, free on board, at 35; 100 ditto on spot, 32 cents; 500 ditto, immediate delivery, 34 cents. Free lanquil, with sales of 50 barrels, at 50@51 cents, free on board.

ARRIVALS—The arrivals of crude by the Allegheny River since our last report, were as follows:

Nat. Ref. & Sp'g Co.	1722	Fisher & Bro.	120
Wm. Haldeman	225	Clark & Co.	50

Finance and Trade in New York.

STOCKS AND MONEY.

NEW YORK, March 30.—The market for railway shares was firmer towards the close, and the last sales were the highest. There were few representatives of the Petroleum and Mining Board around the street to-day, and the only transaction was the sale of Hecla at gold, at 2.15, a further rise. The Gold market remained firm to the close, and the last sale was $300,000 at 127⅝. It is said that some of the Gold sold to-day is gone to Europe. Sterling Exchange, drooping, at 108½.

NEW YORK, March 30.—The Post says the following are the principal transactions on the street to-day: $200,000 of American gold sold at 127⅝, $25,000 of American gold sold at 127⅝ for Tuesday, $30,000 of American gold sold at 127⅝, $2,000 Southern sold at 85, 50 shares Fort Wayne at 92.

The New York Commercial says money is without change, transactions being very light at 5 per cent on call, and 6@7 per cent. on prime paper.
